

BIOL 395 / PSYC 347

Historic Epidemics:

A Study of the Microbes Responsible and the Effect on Human Behavior

July 6-21, 2019

London, England
Edinburgh, Scotland
Dublin, Ireland

Edinburgh Castle

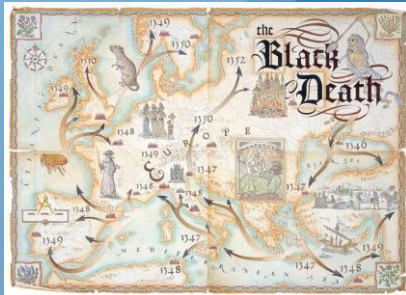

Surgeon's Hall Museums, Edinburgh

Explore the major historical epidemics of plague, cholera, typhus, smallpox and Spanish influenza

Downe House, Home of Charles Darwin

Use the culture and context of cities and villages in the UK and Ireland to understand human fears, suffering and reactions to epidemics

Former Site of Bethlem Asylum - London

Informational Meeting:
Tuesday, 9/11/18
5:00 - 6:00 p.m.
McMurrin 101
Program Fee:
$4250 + tuition

Program Leaders:
Dr. Lisa Webb
lwebb@cnu.edu
and
Dr. Dorothy Doolittle
dolittle@cnu.edu