

CNU Study Abroad Payment Information

“Oxford Seminar: The Good Society”

PRINT NAME: _____

Two types of payments are made for CNU Study Abroad Programs. For your participation, you only pay the tuition fee. Students will also be expected to have spending money available in-country for meals and personal expenses in their free time. Students should discuss with the faculty leaders or the study abroad office to determine an estimate of out-of-pocket expenses. Payment types:

The Program Fee is a total amount paid for housing, transportation, international airfare, entrance fees, insurance and some meals. There is no program fee due to your scholarship.

Program Fee Total = $0

2. Tuition & Fees is the cost of the academic credit taken during the study abroad. Tuition & Fees are charged to CNU STUDENT ACCOUNTS via CNU LIVE. Charges will be placed onto your account by CNU in the spring.

Tuition & Fees

Tuition will be loaded onto your student account. This charge will be paid directly to the CNU Business Office through the student’s online account. The Study Abroad Tuition and Fees includes the $150 study abroad fee. Please initial next to the tuition rate that applies to you for Study Abroad Tuition & Fees for 3 credits:

_____ $1,425 In-State Tuition & Fees      _____ $3,171 Out-of-State Tuition & Fees

Refunds and Withdrawal Policy

Payments are made to vendors to secure services on behalf of the student in advance and are often non-refundable to CNU. These expenses may include but are not limited to pre-paid meals, pre-paid housing, airline deposits or tickets, bus rental fees, etc. Thus, even if you withdraw from the program prior to departure, you are still responsible for unrecoverable program costs.

- For CNU study abroad programs, “withdrawal” includes voluntarily withdrawal as well as involuntarily withdrawal due to illness or other circumstances, or if the student is dismissed or suspended from the university for either academic or conduct reasons. If a student is dismissed from the program for academic or conduct reasons after the program begins, or if the student voluntarily withdraws from the program after it has begun, there will be no refund issued to the student for fees that have been charged.
- If the program is cancelled due to insufficient student enrollment, then all charges will be refunded.
- If the program is cancelled due to an act of war or terrorism, a State Department warning, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention warning, or other circumstances that make the program location unsafe, all fees not already spent on behalf of the student will be refunded.
- All withdrawals, as well as any requests for refunds should be made in writing to the Study Abroad Office prior to the dates noted above. It is in the student’s best interest to notify the study abroad office immediately upon deciding to withdraw.
- If a student elects or is unable to participate in one or more individual program activities (field trips, group meals, etc.), the cost of these activities cannot be refunded.

Student signature:

I have read and agree to the above policies, amounts, deadlines, and procedures. I understand that CNU will place a charge to my student account for the tuition and fees in the Spring and those tuition and fees are due by the dates set by Student Accounts. I understand that I am responsible for paying the entire program fee online in my student account by the stated deadlines. In the event my study abroad program fee balance is not paid in full by the due date, I understand that I may be dropped from the program without a refund of previous payments. I will share this payment and refund policy with any third party, such as a parent, that is paying for the program on my behalf. I understand that I will pay the following for my participation in the program.

For additional out of pocket expenses contact faculty leader or consult the program website.
