

Psychology of Alcohol and Culture

Belgium-Germany-Netherlands

Psychology 347-01

May 8 - 27, 2022

Study abroad in Belgium (Bruges), the Netherlands (Amsterdam) and Germany (Bamberg), three beautiful UNESCO World Heritage Cities!

Cognitive, developmental, biological, and socio-cultural aspects of alcohol use are examined and compared. Topics include theories of alcohol use, cultural and social norms, treatment, taste perception, and marketing.

Prerequisite Psych 201 or 202. Earn 3 credits toward psychology major/minor requirements or 3 elective credits toward graduation. Open to all majors. Three required predeparture class meetings on campus in Spring 2022.

Costs included in $4200 program fee:

- International airfare from the United States and all transportation within Europe.
- Lodging, breakfasts, minimum of three group dinners and one lunch, all course activities, seminars, museum fees, admissions, bicycle rentals, international travel health insurance.

Costs not included in program fee:

- Tuition: In-state ($1284) or out-of-state ($2841) in addition to the program fee.
- Most lunches/dinners, personal spending, textbook, passport, any additional baggage fees.

Belgium: Cultural exchange and research collaboration with Belgian students; Cantillon Museum; Brussels Grand Place; Groninge Museum; St Jans Hospital; AA seminar; brewery visit; bicycling; canal tour.

Netherlands: Rijksmuseum; Heineken Experience; House of Bols; Anne Frank House; supported employment brewery visit; Van Gogh Museum; canal tour; bicycling and culture tour.

Germany: Dom Cathedral; Schlenkerla seminar; Altenburg Castle; Franconian Brewery Museum; Weyermann's Malthouse; brewery visit; traditional bierkeller.

Program Leaders: Dr. Diane Catanzaro and Dr. Olga Lipatova. Space is limited! View syllabus, sample itinerary, photo album, video, and apply at studyabroad@cnu.edu E-mail for additional information: catanzar@cnu.edu